

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Bolivarian people and government, expresses his strongest rejection to the violent actions against the brotherly Palestinian people, which represent the Israeli reaction to the massive demonstration in Gaza, in protest against the unilateral and arbitrary action by the U.S. government of transferring its Embassy in Israel from the capital city of Tel-Aviv to the city of Jerusalem.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, always consistent to its support to the just cause of the Palestinian people and its full right to return to the territories that have historically belonged to it, shares the grief and mourning endured in these dark times by the families of over four dozens of deaths, and it hopes for the prompt recovery of over thousands of injured.

Once more, the Bolivarian Government expresses its strongest rejection to the actions made by the U.S. government together with the Israeli occupying force, which lack of legality and are completely contrary to the International Law, disrupt all resolutions related to this conflict, and they undermine all efforts for finding a peaceful and just solution that returns the heroic Palestinian people to the land that belongs to it.
