

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela expresses to the People of the United States of America its deepest felt condolences after the recent shooting carried out in the town of Virginia Beach, where at least 12 people lost their lives and others were seriously injured.

To the families and friends of the victims, the People of Venezuela sends a fraternal greeting of solidarity, in the hope that they find the motivation and peace to move forward. Deeply painful events of this sort are a call to attention for all of society and they should lead to a better coexistence where dialogue and respect prevail over violence.
