

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

President Nicolás Maduro regrets death of former Indian chancellor Sushma Swaraj

President Nicolás Maduro Moros, on behalf of the People and Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, extends his heartfelt words of condolences to the People and Government of India for the sad passing of former Foreign Minister Sushma Swaraj.

During his brilliant path leading the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Sushma Swaraj arduously contributed to the consolidation of the multipolar world and South-South cooperation.

Her Excellency Sushma Swaraj was a dear friend of Venezuela and will always be remembered with deep respect in our country.

Venezuela extends its deepest sorrow and feelings of solidarity to her family and friends in this painful moment.

Caracas, August 6th, 2019