

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolás Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan Government and People, extends the warmest words of congratulations to the sisterly Socialist Republic of Vietnam on the occasion of the celebration of the 75th Anniversary of the Declaration of its Independence.

On September 2nd, 1945, the leader Ho Chi Minh proclaimed the independence of that nation, an independence that the hardworking Vietnamese people have preserved and consolidated with pages of glory and courage, overcoming, together with the Communist Party of Vietnam and the wise leadership of its leaders, all the difficulties, defeating first French imperialism and then the imperialism of the United States of America, thus guaranteeing self-determination, independence and cultural identity, and contributing with its efforts to the national reconstruction and modernization process, the eradication of poverty and the prosperity of the country, an example for the developing world and an unequivocal demonstration that socialism is the path to supreme happiness in peace.

The Bolivarian Government, in conveying the most affectionate feelings of brotherhood to the People and the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam on this historic date, reiterates the firm commitment to move forward in the excellent relations that unite us with the Vietnamese nation, an expression of our deep friendship and the will to be united in the face of the challenges imposed by the current international scenario in the difficult times of the fight against the COVID-19 pandemic.
