The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolás Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan People and Government, congratulates the brotherly people of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines for the successful electoral day held on November 5th, 2020, in which Prime Minister Ralph Gonsalves was reelected.

Venezuela applauds the historic and unprecedented fifth victory of the Unity Labor Party, with His Excellency Ralph Gonsalves as its leader, as well as the civic and democratic attitude of the people of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines during the elections, even in the midst of the complex context generated by the COVID-19 pandemic.

There is no doubt that under the lucid leadership of comrade Prime Minister, Ralph Gonsalves, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, a central member of CARICOM and the Bolivarian Alliance for the Peoples of Our America, ALBA-TCP, will continue to play a fundamental role in the process of integration and shared development of the Caribbean region.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela reiterates its firm support with the sisterly Caribbean nation, with the conviction that friendship and bilateral cooperation ties will continue to be strengthened, to contribute to the post-pandemic socioeconomic recovery and to promote the principles of sovereignty, solidarity and independence.
