

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela extends its most heartfelt condolences to the people and government of the United States of America for the regrettable attack perpetrated today, November 5th, 2017, in a church located on the outskirts of the city of San Antonio, Texas state, where at least 20 persons lost their lives and many other were injured, including children.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela expresses its deepest sympathy to the victims of such terrible event and their families, whilst strongly condemns this and any other act of violence aiming at causing terror among the population.

On behalf of the people and government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, we pray for the prompt recovery of the injured, for the rest of those who have lost their lives and for the comfort of their families. We also hope that those responsible for such reprehensible act are brought to justice, and that the people of the United States would promptly overcome this regrettable event.
