

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Government and the Venezuelan People, expresses its sincere congratulations to the Government and the People of the Plurinational State of Bolivia, on the occasion of the judicial elections carried out on December 3rd, whose results have shown a massive and exemplary participation, demonstrating once again the democratic spirit of this sister nation of our America and its profound Cultural Revolution.

Likewise, we express our deep respect and admiration for the institutions of the Plurinational State, in carrying out this unprecedented process with undisputed success and efficiency in the region and in the world. People's democracy has deepened in this exemplary judicial election.

We take this opportunity to congratulate our brother President Evo Morales Ayma for the courageous democratic leadership of his people in facing and overcoming the constant attacks by the imperial powers that only seek to seize the existing resources in our nations and to hamper the healthy development of truly democratic governments.

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela reiterates the deep friendship that unites our Peoples and reaffirms the commitment in the consolidation of the revolutionary unity among our nations, in order to materialize the supreme dream of our Liberator Simon Bolivar and to honor the struggles and heroic resistance of our native peoples.
