

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan people, joins the Nicaraguan People and Government on the occasion of the one hundred second commemoration of the poet Ruben Dario's passage to immortality, thus paying tribute to the Prince of Spanish Literature of our America.

Ruben Dario became, at the time, the first literary pro-independence supporter of America and the standard-bearer of the poetic movement of the Spanish language called Modernism. This great poet of our America always sought for inventions in the literature field. Moreover, he was aware of the importance of his craft; he was in a constant pursuit of perfection in the literary expression, which was a permanent feature of his work. For this reason, the willingness to create a style was what defined his modernism.

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, faithful to the legacy of our father Liberator Simon Bolivar and of our Supreme and Eternal Commander Hugo Chavez Frias, sends to President Daniel Ortega, Vice-president comrade Rosario Murillo and the Nicaraguan People a message of deep love and full of expressions of solidarity, which has always strengthened the ties between brotherly peoples, united as a single Homeland to continue recalling and defending the infinite prose and fresh verse of the great Ruben Dario.

Caracas, February 6th 2018