

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the heroic people of Venezuela, congratulates the brotherly people of Grenada for having successfully held their elections last March 13th, 2018, which were won by the New National Party (NNP).

This is a good opportunity to remind the great meaning of this date for the Grenadian people, because it is coincidence that on March 13th, 1979, Maurice Bishop assumes a significant role in the political and cultural transformation of the island by means of the social and educational revolution.

Once more, the noble people of Grenada demonstrated its courage and democratic awareness in favour of its future as a sovereign State, through a participatory exercise in the electoral system.

The Bolivarian Government congratulates the re-election of Keith Mitchell, leader of the New National Party and friend of Venezuela, as Prime Minister, and wishes him every success in his new term, as well as, it hopes furthering cooperation and the friendship ties that bond our peoples.

Our commitment remains and is to continue following the path of justice, equality and solidarity, through multilateral mechanisms such as ALBA-TCP and CELAC, because the experience has shown that the Caribbean integration rests in the consolidation of a multi-polar and polycentric world, with a view to achieve the supreme happiness of our peoples.

Caracas, March 14th, 2018