

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan people and Government expresses his deep concern and strongly condemns the breach of the constitutional order in the Republic of Zimbabwe caused by a sector of the Army who keeps President Robert Mugabe confined in his house and have taken the media over.

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela calls for the immediate restoration of the democratic institutionalism and the full respect of the Constitution, the laws and the democracy of this brotherly African country.

Furthermore, the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela calls for the respect and safeguard of the physical integrity of President Mugabe and his family and urges all the institutions and citizens to settle their differences by means of dialogue. The Bolivarian Government is confident that the regional and sub-regional institutions shall provide their wise and firm support to prevent the institutions and the sovereignty of this country from being undermined.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela will continue monitoring the latest events and fervently hopes that the Republic of Zimbabwe and its people will return to peace and tranquility.
