

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Venezuelan people, along with the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, hereby expresses its most heartfelt words of solidarity and support in the aftermath of the tropical storm Tembin which occurred this last December 22nd, 2017 on the island of Mindanao, Philippines and which left two hundred persons dead, eighty-six injured and two hundred and ninety-one missing people, causing a deep sense of grief and sadness to its population.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela conveys its deepest condolences to the Government of the Republic of Philippines, to its people and to the families of the victims amid such sensitive moments, while it reaffirms its full solidarity with our Philippine brothers.
