

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela conveys its most sincere words of solidarity and condolences to the people of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan after the terrorist attack which took place in the Tebyan Cultural Center, located in the area of Qala-e-Nazer, in the Western side of Kabul, regrettably causing at least forty-one deaths and more than eighty-four injured.

The Bolivarian Government, on behalf of the Venezuelan people, consistent with its principles of solidarity and peace, strongly reaffirms its rejection of such terrorist attacks and extends its most sincere condolences to the families of the victims.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, by showing its sympathy to the families of the victims, reiterates its bonds of fraternity and friendship with the Afghan people.
