

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The people and government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela express their strongest rejection of the attempted coup against the government of Equatorial Guinea, perpetrated by a group of mercenaries dismantled in the border with the Republic of Cameroon during the celebration of December 2017 holiday.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela reaffirms its unconditional solidarity with our African brothers, based on respect for sovereignty and rejection of violent actions that seek to produce destabilization in the Central African region.

We hope that the efforts of the African countries and the international community will focus on the search for peaceful solutions of mutual respect, consensus and solidarity, based on peace and social justice, and condemning any destabilizing attempt that undermines the well being of the region.
