

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela repudiates the most recent attempts by the Government of the United States of America to blackmail and interfere in its internal affairs, constituting an ultimatum against the entire Venezuelan society and which, through coercion and threats, seeks to impose coup-mongering, undermine the institutions of the Republic, apply new coercive measures, and destabilize the Venezuelan economy and the well-being of its people.

Venezuela absolutely and unequivocally rejects the neocolonialist interventionism that Washington is trying to impose against an independent country that fully exercises its national sovereignty and has the right to choose its own destiny without the constant pressure and aggression of a government complicit in the massacre and genocide in Gaza, with a bloody history of human rights violations in Our America and with a record of repression of its own indigenous, Afro-descendant and migrant populations.

Communiqué

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela calls for the unity and mobilization of all the Venezuelan people in defense of national sovereignty and for international solidarity to repudiate this interference in support of sectors of the oligarchy, of the wealthy families, linked to past calls for the imposition of illegal sanctions that affected the national, regional, and global economy

Venezuela will not yield to any blackmail. Its institutions will continue to comply with the laws and the national Constitution, in accordance with the mandate received by the Venezuelan people. Likewise, it will take all necessary measures to continue the course of economic growth and social development that it has undertaken with its own effort, in the midst of the economic hostilities applied against its citizens.
