

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela expresses its deepest condolences to the brotherly People of Namibia and its Honorable Government, on the sensitive passing away of the President of the Republic, His Excellency Mr. Hage G. Geingob, on Sunday, February 4, 2024, in Windhoek.

President Geingob has been an example of struggle for the sovereignty and independence of our Mother Africa and a great friend of Venezuela. His dedication and devotion bequeathed to the Namibian people the democratic spirit enshrined in its Magna Carta, to bring the greatest possible sum of happiness to his nation, based on justice, respect and equality.

Venezuela conveys its solidarity in this moment of grief at the physical departure of this great leader, extended to his family, friends, members of the SWAPO Party and the Namibian people, for whom we wish comfort and strength, in remembrance of his courage and loyalty in the struggle against injustice. It is for this reason that his memory will remain alive in the noble causes of the Peoples.

The legacy of Brother President Hage G. Geingob will always be preserved in the hearts of the Venezuelan people, may he rest in peace! Eternal glory!
