

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The governments of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela and the Republic of Panama, in the interest of maintaining bilateral constructive relations and promoting the well being of their citizens, agree:

1. Restore the presence of the Ambassador of Panama accredited to Venezuela and of the Ambassador of Venezuela accredited to Panama.
2. Restore the air connectivity.
3. Maintain an open and respectful diplomatic dialogue, in order to continue addressing the various aspects of the bilateral agenda.

As a follow-up to the previous, the Foreign Ministers of both countries shall render a progress report to the Presidents in thirty days.
