BOLIVARIAN REPUBLIC OF VENEZUELA PEOPLE'S POWER MINISTRY FOR FOREIGN RELATIONS

COMMUNIQUÉ

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan government and people, conveys his warmest congratulations to the government and people of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, on the celebration of the 43th anniversary of the South Vietnam's liberation and the reunification of Ho Chi Minh Homeland.

Inspired in the brotherhood spirit with the peoples of the world, which characterizes the emancipation's doctrine of Liberator Simon Bolivar and the Commander Hugo Chavez thought, the Venezuelan people proudly join the celebration of the spring 1975 victory that led the territorial reunification and the creation of the sisterly Socialist Republic of Vietnam. As a result of this important achievement, the country entered in an economic recovery period with the successful construction of the "Vietnamese socialist model": Alternative to the occidental representative democracy proposal based on neoliberalism, thus becoming in a bulwark of resistance and example for the free nations of the world, and reaching high levels of scientific-technological development, as well as important achievements in the social field through its own model.

Furthermore, Venezuela expresses the hope that Vietnam continues achieving important successes and strengthening the transcendental political and socioeconomic conquest of the last years; it also reiterates its willingness to strengthen the political relation and the bilateral and friendly cooperation, in order to construct a multicenter and multipolar world for the people's well being and sovereignty. The Bolivarian homeland is inexorably enshrined to such premise.
