Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan People and Government, conveys his congratulation to the glorious people and to the Honorable Government of Malaysia for the exemplary Election Day held on last May 9th.

In this sense, President Maduro expresses his best wishes to the recently elected Prime Minister Mahathit Mohamad in the beginning of this new period, as well as values the recognition that the People have given to his background in the running of the destinies of the country, for his wise and courageous leadership in the defense of sovereignty, honor and prosperity of the nation.

Additionally, President Maduro also wishes to reaffirm the will to strengthen the brotherhood and cooperation ties between Venezuela and Malaysia, in pursuit of a comprehensive, shared and mutually beneficial development, thus honoring the legacy of the Eternal Commander Hugo Chavez.

The common membership of both nations to the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM), which is currently chaired by Venezuela, provides a great opportunity to strengthen the joint contribution in the consolidation of a fair, equal and multipolar international system, which was denominated by the Liberator Simon Bolivar as the equilibrium of the universe, for building a future of peace and harmony for humanity.
