

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Venezuelan people and the Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela express its grief for the 6.9 magnitude earthquake registered on Sunday, August 5th, 2018 on the Island of Lombok, Indonesia, affecting the Island of Bali. It has left a large number of human losses, dozens of injured people and infrastructure damaged.

The epicenter was located at 105 kilometers deep, two kilometers east of Loloan, a northern part of the island, which warns the possibility of a tsunami.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela conveys its deepest condolences to the government of the Republic of Indonesia, its people and the families of the victims in this sensitive moment and ratifies its full solidarity with our Indonesian brothers and sisters.
