

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan people hereby strongly and categorically condemns the unfair and unusual approval of the so-called bill Nica Act by the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, which provides for the application of economic and financial sanctions against the brotherly people of Nicaragua.

The government of the United States, especially its current administration, reiterates its imperial commitment to harm the coexistence and dialogue willingness expressed by the peoples of Latin America and the Caribbean, who aspire to establish relations with their Northern neighbour based on respect and equality.

The Sandinista Government of Nicaragua and the Social Alliance model fostered by Commander President Daniel Ortega and Vice President, Companion Rosario Murillo, have achieved the social peace, national reconciliation and sustained economic progress that the Nicaraguan people enjoys today.

The government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela hereby expresses its total solidarity and loyalty with the noble Nicaraguan people and government in the light of this new onslaught against the free and sovereign people of Nicaragua by the U.S. imperialism.

Today, we reaffirm our commitment with the Grand Homeland and the profound unity and solidarity with Our America, which was proclaimed by our heroes and recalled by the Eternal Commander Hugo Chavez, who said: "We must continue fighting for that America who has accumulated a lot of pain but also has a renewed hope."

The government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela expresses its permanent and unconditional solidarity with the people of Nicaragua and its government and reiterates its support to the fights for the dignity of our peoples as a banner of unity and brotherhood.
