

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of his government and the Venezuelan people conveys the most sincere and fraternal congratulations to the government and people of Turkey on the celebration of the 94th anniversary of the founding of the Turkish Republic.

On this remarkable date, the Bolivarian Government highlights and commemorates the figure represented by the founder leader and first Turkish President, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, who consolidated his nation as a modern and democratic State -with a relevant political leadership within the concert of nations of the world- example of the struggle against the hegemonic imperial powers and the quest for peace.

As the grand Turkish revolutionary leader said:

“Yurtta barış, dünyada barış”

[Peace at home, peace at the world]

The Bolivarian Government stresses the new level of the political dialogue achieved through the recent visit by the President Nicolas Maduro Moros to this nation and the successful completion of the 2nd Joint Commission on

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

Bilateral Cooperation, on the past October 6th, 2017, which opened the path to forge a strategic bilateral alliance on energy, political, agriculture, air transportation, security and tourism fields.

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela reaffirms the close bonds of friendship and cooperation between both sisterly nations and its commitment to continue to work jointly to achieve the supreme happiness of our peoples.

Caracas, October 29th, 2017