

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela strongly condemns the terrorist attack perpetrated today in the underground transportation system of London, which preliminarily caused 22 injured victims.

The Bolivarian Government expresses its solidarity with the British people and government, particularly with those who was injured or affected by this deplorable action and hopes for their prompt and full recovery.

The Bolivarian Government, once more, strongly rejects any form of terrorism, wherever it happens and its alleged reasons. Therefore, the Bolivarian Government reaffirms its willingness to continue collaborating with the international community in any necessary measures aimed at to fight against these political actions that cause serious damages to humankind and reiterates that the freedom and justice shall prevail over the violence.

Caracas, September 15th, 2017