

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

The President of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Nicolas Maduro Moros, on behalf of the Venezuelan people and government manifests his rejoicing on this day, which marks the 36th anniversary of the establishing of diplomatic relations between Venezuela and Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

Both peoples and governments keep a dynamic and long-standing exchange relation on political, social and cultural matters, which has been intensified during the last 18 years of the Bolivarian Revolution, thanks to the commitment and firm belief of our Supreme Commander Hugo Chavez of rescuing and consolidating the Latin American and the Caribbean integration.

The Venezuelan people celebrates along with this sisterly nation a new anniversary of the establishing of diplomatic relations and expresses its wishes to continue working to deepen the cooperation in all fields, particularly on energy through Petrocaribe, as well as keep on realizing the ideals of cultural diversity within the Community of Latin American and Caribbean States (CELAC) to favour a balanced and democratic regional integration that respects the differences and asymmetries of our peoples and also deepen the ties of brotherhood and cooperation.

We reaffirm our firm commitment to continue to work on sustaining and strengthening the historical, political and diplomatic relations, which has characterized our peoples throughout all these years.

Caracas, October 29th, 2017