

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communiqué

Today, in the framework of the EU-CELAC ministerial meeting, the People's Power Minister for Foreign Affairs held a bilateral meeting with the Minister for Foreign Affairs, European Union and Cooperation of the Kingdom of Spain, Josep Borrel.

The meeting has been carried out in an environment of fraternity and mutual respect. Many important aspects of the cooperation between both nations have been reviewed.

Minister Arreaza has highlighted the will of the Bolivarian Government of keeping a fruitful and productive dialogue with Spain and the European Union, based on respect. Likewise, several aspects of the bi-regional integration between CELAC and the EU have been reviewed.

The development of the political events in both countries and the consolidation of the democratic process were widely discussed.

Finally, both ministers committed to continue working to improve the relations between Spain and Venezuela, through a common work agenda that prioritizes the interests of both Peoples.
