

Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela

Communique

The Government of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, led by the Constitutional President, Nicolás Maduro Moros, categorically rejects the most recent statement by the British Government in which it maintains its recognition of the extinct National Assembly of the year 2015.

Said declaration represents a flagrant interference in matters of exclusive competence of the Venezuelan State, with the purpose of affecting the true spaces for dialogue convened by President Nicolás Maduro Moros, as well as the concrete achievements that have been agreed for the protection of the People of Venezuela and the restitution of the national patrimony.

The Bolivarian Government urges the British Government to seek a constructive role and establish with Venezuela, paths of understanding that allow overcoming the pitfalls of the bilateral relationship, such as the misappropriation of gold belonging to the Venezuelan people. The Government of Venezuela will not give up in the defence of its sovereignty and the International Law.

Caracas, January 12th 2023